Dear Parents / Carers,

World Book Day – Thursday 7th March

On Thursday 7th March we will be celebrating our love of reading on World Book Day.

What is World Book Day?

‘World Book Day is a registered charity on a mission to give every child and young person a book of their own. It’s also a celebration of authors, illustrators, books and (most importantly) it’s a celebration of reading. In fact, it’s the biggest celebration of its kind, designated by UNESCO as a worldwide celebration of books and reading, and marked in over 100 countries all over the world.’

How will we celebrate World Book Day at Kents Hill Park School?

We would like every child to choose a book character to dress up as for the day. We encourage them to bring along the book that is their dressing up inspiration so that they can share it with the class. We have planned an exciting day full of reading themed activities and can’t wait to dive into a range of fantastic books.

Book Tokens

Each child will receive a £1 book token that they can take to a local bookseller and exchange it for one of the ten exclusive World Book Day books. Or, if they’d rather, they can use it to get £1 off any book or audio book costing over £2.99 at a participating bookshop or book club (for terms and conditions please see www.worldbookday.com).

We can’t wait to celebrate our love of reading and see which characters the children choose to dress up as!

Kind regards,

Mrs Tough
